Insurance for AAA Member Assistance Professionals

Arrowhead Automotive Insurance provides access to a specialty insurance program that may help independent contractors, who provide roadside assistance services to AAA members, save money and increase insurability.

Insurers consider Member Assistance Providers to be general tow truck operators. General tow truck operators are considered a less than favorable insurance risk by many insurers. Our program uniquely defines member assistance providers as better insurance risks so that they can increase their insurability and lower insurance costs.

About the Program

This program, offered through an A-Rated Insurance Carrier, is customized specifically for Member Assistance Providers. It offers customers the ability to improve safety across their operations through a partnership with Samsara. The program includes a full package of insurance and safety features.

- Commercial Auto Liability up to $1,000,000
- General Liability up to $1,000,000
- Additional insurance limits up to $1,000,000
- Workers' Compensation at Statutory Limits

Additionally:

- Lowest Down payments Available
- Premiums include Subsidized Safety Tools
